

VICTORY OF LIGHT

Hello Everyone!

Hope you're having a great summer! This is your registration packet for the next two Victory of Light Festivals, taking place November 19 & 20, 2005 and April 8 & 9, 2006 at the Sharonville Convention Center in Cincinnati.

Reader spaces (4 ft), vendor tables (8 ft), healer booths (8x10) and 10 x 10 booths, which can be rented individually or shared by any combination of readers, healers and vendors, are available. Two exhibitors sharing a 10 x 10 booth and bringing their own tables realize the most economical booth fees. See the enclosed Festival Agreement. Be sure to include your web and email addresses or they will not be included as links on our website.

Exhibitors requiring multiple booths may be entitled to a discount. Please contact me to discuss your specific situation. If you register and prepay for both festivals you will receive a 5% discount off your grand total. Each booth comes with two very comfortable cushioned chairs. Additional chairs are available at $5 each for the weekend. Extra chairs are not transferable from booth to booth.

We are pleased to once again offer advertising in our enhanced festival program to festival exhibitors as well as non-exhibitors at very reasonable rates. See the enclosed Advertising Agreement. We are very pleased that Carrie Cox, long-time friend and associate of Victory of Light, will be coordinating the advertising and Tammi Rager of DreamWeaver will be designing the ads and program. If you do not have an existing ad, Tammi can design your ad for free (!) as long as communication is via email.

Have you considered presenting a one or two hour seminar? It's a great way to promote yourself. Your name will appear on fair programs, press releases, 25,000 fliers, and our website. If interested, please fill out the workshop section of the festival agreement. Victory of Light will record your seminar free of charge and provide to you a digital CD you may duplicate, sell, give away in any way you wish in exchange for the right to continue making recordings available to the public via our website. We promote you long after your seminar has ended, recoup some of our recording expenses, and provide you with a higher profile on our website. All recordings are labeled attractively with presenter's name and contact info. This is an effortless way for you to have product available! If you do not want to duplicate your own recordings, we can wholesale them to you or provide order fulfillment for orders you take yourself. If you do not wish to have your seminar recorded, please indicate so on the festival agreement. You will, of course, remain on the seminar schedule.

Our show is selling out much sooner than it ever has, so be sure to fill out and return your forms soon. You can even call and register over the telephone with a credit card. We look forward to seeing you soon!

Sincerely,
Victor Paruta
Victory of Light Festival

P.S. Victory of Light is excited to announce our very first Holistic Health Expo taking place February 12, 2006 at the Sharonville Convention Center. This one-day show is for healing related exhibitors and presenters only. Details will be coming soon.

Reminder: Psychic festival dates are now consistent from year to year: the weekend before Thanksgiving and the first, second or third weekend in April (never Easter weekend), so please mark your calendars and plan ahead.
