Historically, a Tibetan town monastery served as a hub of spiritual and communal activity. Community members drew religious and spiritual inspiration from the monastery and provided material support for the monks, who focused their efforts on helping all sentient beings.

GSL Monastery continues this tradition by offering classes, meditation practice and special events for those in the community who wish to learn about or study Tibetan Buddhism as a philosophy for life, a spiritual path or a religious practice. The teachers offer instruction handed down from Shakyamuni Buddha (“The Buddha”) and passed from teacher to student in an unbroken lineage for over 2,500 years.

Their purpose is not to convert individuals to Buddhism, but rather to offer the teachings to assist others in attaining happiness and peace. All are welcome.

Becoming the Human Crystal™ is a process and a technology that allows each of us to consciously direct our own transformation and evolution. Through this evolutionary process we can and will create a world of peace, abundance and sustainability. Becoming the Human Crystal™ is a process of becoming a clear, resonant channel for spirit by cleansing and realigning the physical, emotional and spiritual self as we learn to walk in balance on this evolving planet. First and foremost, however, it is about becoming a spiritual midwife; birthing yourself, the planet, and those around you into a new sphere of Light and life. The Becoming the Human Crystal™ process is a grounding of frequency upon and within the planet; with yourself as the conduit. It is a process of consciously walking upon the Earth; of setting Light energy into the Earth's energetic field with each step we take and each breath we breathe. It is a personal spiritual path, a healing technique, and a way of being that quickly and easily aligns the physical, emotional, energetic, and spiritual bodies with the increased frequencies we are now experiencing.

Naisha lives on top of a mountain in the "Northeast Kingdom" of Vermont, USA, with her husband and assorted furry and feathered kin. This is a very unique Midwest opportunity to meet and greet this nationally acclaimed Crystal Healer Master. Find her in Booth 522.

C. Meditation Concert with Crystal & Tibetan Bowls – Ron Esposito. www.ronesposito.com (Room 104)

Singing bowls connect us to past generations and civilizations dating as far back as the Bronze Age, more than 3,000 years ago. The bowls' multiphonic sound - their ability to produce multiple harmonic overtones simultaneously - is used as a healing tool by psychotherapists, massage therapists and recovery, stress and meditation specialists.

Today the Quartz Crystal Singing and Tibetan Brass Bowls are found throughout the world both within and without spiritual traditions. They are used for meditation, relaxation, personal well-being and simply for enjoyment.

Ron's debut recording project playing both the Tibetan and Quartz Crystal Singing Bowls is "Lifting the Veil" (2008) - a collection of Enneagram meditations spoken by Ron and Deborah Ooten with keyboard, guitar and percussion accompaniment.

For his debut solo music project, "Open Heart" (Spiral Music 2009), Ron assembled a group of renowned musical artists from genres that span both ancient and modern cultures. The result - an inspired sound experience praised by critics as "elegant" and "joyful" - is now into its second pressing. "Open Heart" was added to the "Echoes" playlist, the groundbreaking syndicated music program hosted by John Diliberto and distributed by Public Radio International. The "Open Heart" video received the 2010 Bronze Telly Award for "Best Online Video" out of a field of more than 13,000 entries. Esposito's second solo CD, "We Are One" (Spiral Music 2011), expands on the musical ideas and discoveries he made recording "Open Heart."

www.reikiawakening.com (Room 104)

Practical Reiki is a user-friendly, simple and strong Reiki modality distinguished by these characteristics: There are no symbols. There are no hand positions. The hands-on treatment involves placing hands on the shoulders of the recipient and letting the energy flow where it is needed. Distance channeling involves simply intending the energy to go to the recipient, holding the hands facing each other, and letting the energy flow until it stops. The energy flows from the earth up, combining with Reiki energy from above through the crown chakra and flows out through the hands. Giving attunements is a simple matter of intending that the recipient receive the attunement when ready. A treatment typically takes about 5 minutes. The energy actually stops flowing when it’s done. The recipient, however, may feel the energy continue for up to an hour.

Alice is the founder and Executive Director of the new Reiki Awakening Academy School of Intuitive Development, which offers courses locally in the Cleveland area and live online, and has ten teachers on staff. D. Minding the Light Within: The Quaker Path to Peacemaking - Paulette Meier. www.communityfriends.org (Room 103)

Quakers have been well known for their courageous stances in the abolition of slavery, the women’s suffrage movement, and many movements for peace and justice over the last three centuries. What many do not realize is that the spiritual practice of Quakers, grounded in inward seeking and deep listening for the promptings of Spirit from within, is at the root of this historic involvement in peacemaking in the world. Paulette Meier will share the fundamentals of Quaker spirituality in this workshop, amplifying her message with words from the earliest 17th century Quaker leaders, which she has set to music. The song/chants are very meditative and moving, and Paulette hopes to teach some of these as part of the presentation.

The Quaker Way is a spiritual path that is simple, radical, and contemporary. It is based on transformative experiences of the Divine expressed as Light. Quakers have a 350 year history that includes close ties to the Spiritualist community.

Paulette Meier is a gifted Quaker singer/songwriter and peace activist. Her first recording, Harmony for Social Justice, was a collaboration with MUSE choir member Ginny Frazier. Come Join the Circle: LessonSongs for Peacemaking, now in its third edition, was the first recording of her original songs for children. It won a Parent’s Choice Approved Award (2002) and a Children’s Music Web Award (2003). Her most recent CD, released in 2011, is titled Timeless Quaker Wisdom in Plain Song. It is a collection of 21 brief, chant-like songs selected from early Quaker writings, set to music and sung by Paulette.

A. Enlightened Masters of the Far East: My Mystic Journey – Andrew Harvey. www.andrewharvey.net (Room 101)

Andrew Harvey, Oxford scholar, author, visionary, and one of the world’s great contemporary mystics will speak about his transformational experiences while walking his astonishing spiritual path. He shares insights from his spiritual teachers in India, his study of the Persian mystical poet Rumi, and wisdom from his friendship with His Holiness The Dalai Lama and Father Bede Griffiths. Learn how we can all become modern mystics without monasteries.

Andrew Harvey was born in south India in 1952 where he lived until he was nine years old. It is this early period that he credits with shaping his sense of the inner unity of all religions and providing him with a permanent and inspiring vision of a world infused with the sacred. He left India to attend private school in England and entered Oxford University in 1970 with a scholarship to study history. At the age of 21, he became the youngest person ever to be awarded a fellowship to All Soul’s College, England’s highest academic honor.
By 1977 Andrew Harvey had become disillusioned with life at Oxford and returned to his native India, where a series of mystical experiences initiated his spiritual journey. Over the next thirty years he plunged into different mystical traditions to learn their secrets and practices. In 1978 he met a succession of Indian saints and sages and began his long study and practice of Hinduism. In 1983, in Ladakh, he met the great Tibetan adept, Thuksey Rinpoche, and undertook with him the Mahayana Buddhist Bodhisattva vows; later, in 1990, he would collaborate with Sogyal Rinpoche and Patrick Gaffney in the writing of The Tibetan Book of Living and Dying. In 1984, Andrew Harvey began a ten-year-long exploration and explication of Rumi and Sufi mysticism in Paris with a group of French Sufis and under the guidance of Eva De Vitray-Meyerovitch, the magnificent translator of Rumi into French. In 1992, he met Father Bede Griffiths in his ashram in south India near where Andrew Harvey had been born. It was this meeting that helped him synthesize the whole of his mystical explorations and reconcile eastern with western mysticism.

In 2005, in the historic Santuario de Guadalupe in Santa Fe New Mexico, Andrew Harvey delivered his vision of the contemporary crisis now confronting us in today’s world and its potential solution in what he has termed “Sacred Activism,” which he sees as the culmination of his life’s work. This extraordinary occasion was made into a documentary film by the Hartley Film Foundation and is available on DVD at www.hartleyfoundation.org.

Andrew Harvey has taught at Oxford University, Cornell University, Hobart and William Smith Colleges, The California Institute of Integral Studies, and the University of Creation Spirituality as well as at the various spiritual centers throughout the United States. He was the subject of the 1993 BBC film documentary The Making of a Modern Mystic and appears also in Rumi Turning Ecstatic and The Consciousness of the Christ: Reclaiming Jesus for A New Humanity. Andrew Harvey is Founder Director of the Institute of Sacred Activism. He also has a spiritual counseling practice in Chicago and is available for spiritual direction via phone.

B. Surviving & Thriving Through Trauma – Ruth Ellerbusch, EMDR Practitioner. www.RuthEllerbusch.com (Room 102)

Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing (EMDR) was originated by Francine Shapiro in 1987 and is now used by over 40,000 therapists worldwide. They have already helped over one million people address a multitude of emotional issues. EMDR uses bilateral stimulation of the brain, through sight, sound, or touch, to accelerate the brain’s information processing system.

Ruth has been a therapist for over twenty-five years and has been using EMDR for the last twelve. The results continue to amaze her. In a brief number of sessions, major life limiting traumas can be healed. EMDR saves you time and expense. It also saves you from enduring needless emotional pain.

We have all experienced something, large or small, in our lives, which has limited us in some way. A big trauma is obvious, such as a plane crash. A small trauma can be just as limiting but not as obvious, such as being called a name as a child and later finding yourself unable to talk in front of crowds. Dr. Seligman, author of Learned Optimism, has labeled the aftermath of trauma as “learned helplessness.” EMDR helps correct this and leaves you with more freedom to realize your true potential.

The five elements of Earth, Fire, Water, Wind and Storm have been revered throughout human history as the primary expressions of Divine energy and power. Each elemental force is related to specific aspects of our lives and bodies. By understanding the elements and how they work within us, we can balance their influences for optimum health and consciousness. Most people think that all crystals are related to the Earth element because they come out of the Earth. But crystals and stones carry the entire spectrum of Earth’s electromagnetic field or aura—including the energy spectrums of the five primary elemental forces. By working with crystals that are energetically related to a specific element, we can attune to that element’s energy and invoke it into our aura and body. Join internationally acclaimed author and speaker Naisha Ahsian to explore the elements and learn how stones can assist in attuning to, and working with, the elemental forces.

Naisha Ahsian is an internationally acclaimed author and teacher on the subjects of vibrational medicine, the healing power of crystals and minerals, and spiritual growth. She is Director of Crystalis Institute for Personal & Planetary Transformation in the United States.

Naisha is co-author of the best-selling Book of Stones: Who They Are & What They Teach. She is the creator of The Crystal Ally Cards: The Crystal Path to Self Knowledge, and author of The Infinite Abundance Program: A 30 Day Course in Healing Abundance Consciousness. She is also creator of the patent-pending Socratic Subliminal technology.
Naisha has developed two vibrational healing modalities; the Primus Activation Healing Technique which utilizes the energetic power of the human heart, and Crystal Resonance Therapy which utilizes the healing power of crystals and minerals.

Naisha lives on the land in the mountains of far northern Vermont with her husband and various animal friends. She travels the world extensively, presenting workshops and training in vibrational medicine, inter-dimensional communication and spiritual growth practices.

Spirit messages for members of the audience.
