Camera Ready Ads:

1. The ad can be sent via email (or mailed on CD) as a GIF, TIF or JPEG file.
2. Hard Copy Ads can be scanned and considered Camera Ready. This is ideal for business cards! However, business cards with subtle lines, lots of color or grainy types of backgrounds do not scan and print well. If you have this type of a business card, a better option for final printing might be to have an ad specifically created for the program.
3. PDFs can be sent that contain the ad. These will be printed and then scanned. However, subtle lines and details can be lost in this process.
4. Ads being sent via email should be sent to: Victor@VictoryofLight.com. Please indicate "Program Ad" in the Subject Line.

Ad Design/Rework:

1. Rework means that there must be changes/modifications made to an ad. For example: an existing business card that needs to have a website added or a phone number changed. Rework is free as long as communication can be done via email.
2. Ads can be designed for you - at no additional charge - for specific use in the Victory of Light Program. NOTE: Ads created by DreamWeaver at no charge for the festival program should be used only for this purpose. If you would like to use your ads in other ways, please contact DreamWeaver directly for details on their full line of graphic design and marketing services which they offer at reasonable rates.
3. For Ad Design - contact DreamWeaver after considering the following:
 - a. Do you have a logo or graphic that you use regularly in your materials? Will you need DreamWeaver to help you secure a graphic for your ad? If so - what would you like it to look like or visually convey?
 - b. Please have a basic idea of what you would like your ad to say.
